

CURRICULUM VITAE

DIANA STOVER

Professor, School of Journalism & Mass Communications
San Jose State University
San Jose, CA 95192-0055
408-924-3271; Diana.Stover@sjsu.edu

EDUCATION

Michigan State University, Ph.D. in Mass Media, 1976.
Columbia University, M.S. in Journalism, 1968.
University of Nebraska, B.A. in Journalism, 1966.

ACADEMIC TEACHING

San Jose State University, 1983 to present, professor. Graduate courses taught: mass communication theory, communication law and public policy, literature of mass communication, mass media and society in China, and research methods. Undergraduate courses taught: media law and ethics, global mass communications, and research on social media. Developed and taught two MUSE freshman seminars: Free press or censorship in times of war: (1) Afghanistan and (2) Iraq. Developed and co-taught study abroad course in Beijing, news media, advertising, and propaganda in China.

China School of Journalism, Beijing, China, 1990-1992, Fulbright Scholar. Taught in the post-graduate International Journalism Program.

City University of Hong Kong, Department of Public and Social Administration, January-August, 1990, Fulbright Scholar. Lectured on mass media and politics with an emphasis on comparative systems, especially those in the United States, Hong Kong, and China. Served as principal investigator on survey research project in Hong Kong for the East-West Center in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Stanford University, 1975-1983, acting assistant/assistant professor. Taught press law and ethics, media responsibilities and ethics, precision journalism, mass media in society, process and effects of mass communication, and news and news organizations. Advised M.S. projects, Ph.D. dissertations. Administration: Coordinated the Master's Program in Journalism, 1977-1981.

Michigan State University, 1973-1975, graduate assistant.

The Ohio State University, instructor, 1971-1973; lecturer, 1970-1971.

Ohio Wesleyan University, 1969-1971, lecturer.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

The Associated Press in Columbus, Ohio, legislative correspondent, 1968-1970. Covered the Ohio Legislature, then-Gov. James A. Rhodes, state departments, and Ohio politics and election campaigns. Covered presidential candidates when they were in Ohio.

Omaha World-Herald in Omaha, NE, and Des Moines, IA, 1966-1967. Bureau chief of the paper's Iowa Statehouse and Legislative Bureau. Prior to the 1966 election, served as a reporter in Omaha and the Council Bluffs Bureau. Covered political campaigns in Omaha and southeast Iowa as well as presidential candidates when they were in Iowa. Also, covered police, courts, and education beats in Council Bluffs. General assignment internship in Omaha, summer 1965.

Lincoln Evening Journal, Lincoln, Nebraska, 1963-1965. Lifestyle and women's news reporter and page design editor.

PUBLIC SERVICE EXPERIENCE

Ohio Civil Rights Commission, Columbus, Ohio, assistant director of education and community relations, 1970-1971. Responsibilities included doing research, writing, and workshops for the Commission, serving as a consultant to schools experiencing unrest, and serving as agency coordinator for a U.S. Housing and Urban Development study on housing discrimination in Ohio's largest cities.

SCHOLARSHIP AND SCHOLARLY ACTIVITIES

Visual Framing: How Newsweek, Time and The Associated Press Covered the 2003 Invasion of Iraq (2011, May 28). Second author with Von Buseck, Diana. Paper presented to the Visual Communication Division, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication Annual Conference, Boston.

Information Needs and Self-Efficacy: Internet Use by Women with Breast Cancer (2009). Second author with Barbara Arroyo. Social Marketing Quarterly, 15(1), 102-117.

The Internet: Antidote to Global Media Giants and State-Censored Media (2009, July 17). Paper presented to the International Conference on Journalism in the 21st Century: Between Globalization and National Identity, International Communication Association and University of Melbourne, Melbourne, Australia.

Framing the War in Georgia: Coverage in Georgian, Russian, and American Newspapers (2009, June 26). Second author with Ekaterine Basilaia. Paper presented to the International Conference on Beyond East and West: Two Decades of Media Transformation after the Fall of Communism, International Communication Association and Central European University, Budapest, Hungary.

The 2008 Olympics: A Framing Study of China's Image in Asian Newspapers (2009, March 21). Paper presented to the International Symposium on China's Rise and Its Impact on Asia: Democratization, Development and Culture, University of Louisville, Louisville, KY, March 20-22, 2009.

Laura Mulvey's Psychoanalytic Argument: Does it Fit Hindi Cinema? (2008, August 6). Second author with Ananya Sensharma. Paper presented to the Visual Communication Division, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication Annual Convention, Chicago.

The Pacific War: A Retrospective Look at Anti-Japanese Propaganda in The New York Times and Anti-American Propaganda in Asahi Shimbun (2000, August 10). Second author with Hideko Yoshimoto. Paper presented to the International Communication Division, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communications, Phoenix.

The Chinese Audience for American and Chinese Media in the United States (2000). In Proceedings of the International Conference on Chinese Audiences Across Time and Space (pp. 206-226). Hong Kong: City University of Hong Kong.

Information-Seeking Behavior and Acculturation Roles of American and Chinese Media in the United States (1999, October 28). Paper presented at the '99 Shanghai International Symposium on Communications at Shanghai International Studies University, Shanghai, China.

The HIV/AIDS Epidemic in Thailand: From Mass Media Campaigns to Community Interventions (1999, August 20). Second author with Pim Pisalsarakit. Paper presented to the International Division, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication Annual Convention, New Orleans, LA. [Top Three Faculty Paper Award]

Diffusion, Critical Mass, and Displacement: Impact of New Media Technologies on Chinese Media in the United States (1999). In The 2nd Asia Pacific Symposium on Press and Scientific Progress (pp. 20-25). Beijing, China: The Ministry of Science and Technology.

Chinese-language Portals in the United States: A Future Tied to Access to the China Market (1999, April 16). Paper presented at the 2nd Asia Pacific Symposium on Press and Scientific Progress, Beijing, China.

Keeping in Touch with the Chinese Homelands: Use of Chinese Media in the United States (1998). Asia Pacific Media Educator, 4(1), 35-49. (An earlier version of the paper was presented at the International Symposium on "Issues and Images: New Communication Research in Asia," City University of Hong Kong, China, on April 3, 1998).

Enduring American Values in the Coverage of the 1994 Winter Olympics in Lillehammer, Norway (1996, August 10). Second author with Steven Nordenstedt. Paper presented to the International Division, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication Annual Convention, Anaheim, CA. (Top Faculty Paper Award]

The Role of Chinese-language Broadcasting in the San Francisco Bay Area (1995, May 26). Second author with Chiao-Chu Li. Paper presented to the Intercultural and Development Communication Division, 45th Annual Conference of the International Communication Association, Albuquerque.

The Role of Educational Television and Interpersonal Communication in Reducing the Knowledge Gap Among Children (1995, April 28). Second author with Lee Susan Bilodeau. Paper presented to the Mass Communication Division, 37th Annual Conference of the Western Social Science Association, Oakland, CA.

TV Viewing in Baranquilla, Colombia: A Question of Cultural Imperialism? (1994, July 14). Second author with Jan Warne. Paper presented to the Intercultural and Development Communication Division, 44th Annual Conference of the International Communication Association, Sydney, Australia.

Limits of Competition Among Chain-Owned Newspapers (1988). In Robert G. Picard, Maxwell E. McCombs, James P. Winter, and Stephen Lacy (Eds.), Press Concentration and Monopoly: New Perspectives on Newspaper Ownership and Operations (pp. 71-87). Norwood, NJ: Ablex. (An earlier version of the paper was presented to the Mass Communication and Society and Newspaper Divisions, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication Annual Convention, Norman, OK, in August, 1986.)

Ethical and Legal Underpinnings of the Right of Privacy: Jeffersonian Social Libertarian Theory or Madisonian Independent Press Theory? (1987, August). Second author with Robert Logan. Paper presented to a joint research session, Mass Communications and Society and Law Divisions, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication Annual Convention, San Antonio, TX.

An Examination of Attorney Attitudes Toward Cameras in the Courtroom (1983, November). Paper presented to the Western Communications Educators Conference, Fullerton, CA.

Electronic Newspapers: Building a Profile of Potential Users (1983, August). First author with Nalini Visvanathan. Paper presented to the Mass Communication and Society Division, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication Annual Convention, Corvallis, OR.

The Los Angeles Times: Ensuring Organizational Survival by Controlling, Adapting to or Containing the External Environment (1981, August). Paper presented to the Newspaper Division, Association for Education in Journalism Annual Convention, East Lansing, MI.

A Tale of Three Cities: Subscriber Reaction to the Merger of Two Community Newspapers (1981). Journalism Quarterly, 58, 599-606.

Direct Magnitude Estimation Scales in Public Opinion Surveys (1980). Public Opinion Quarterly, 44, 377-384.

Subscriber Reaction to the Merger of Two Community Newspapers: A Tale of Three Cities and Predictors of Attitudes Toward the New Paper (1980, August). Paper presented to the Newspaper Division, Association for Education in Journalism Annual Convention, Boston.

The Los Angeles Times: Weakening of Territorial Imperative (1980). Newspaper Research Journal, 1, 18-26.

Inside the Los Angeles Times: Organizational Constraints on News about the 1976 Presidential Election Campaign (1980, March 27). Paper presented to the Western Political Science Association Convention, San Francisco.

The Los Angeles Times: Weakening of Territorial Imperative (1979, August). Paper presented to the Mass Communication and Society Division, Association for Education in Journalism Annual Convention, Houston, TX.

Decisionmaking in News Organizations (1977). In Media Performance and Political Campaigns. Berkeley, CA: University of California-Berkeley: Institute of Governmental Studies.

Other Scholarship

Channel 30 Viewership Survey: Who Is Watching the City's Government Access Channel, Who Isn't Watching and Why (1985). Report to the City of Cupertino, CA.

Information Seeking in the Mass Media on the Watergate-Impeachment Issue and President Nixon's Resignation (1976). Unpublished dissertation, Michigan State University.

Cable Television Channels for Transmitting and Recording Depositions of Witnesses (1975). In Experimental Applications of Two-Way Cable Communications in Urban Administration and Social Service Delivery. Report to the National Science Foundation. East Lansing, MI: Michigan State University.

Grants

Received Provost's Research, Scholarship, and Creative Activity (RSCA) grant of $4,991 for research on "Comparative Analysis of the Palestinian Fatah-Hamas Conflict and Reconciliation," Spring, 2012.

Received joint faculty-student research grant of $1,000 for research with Dannah Sanchez on "The Egyptian Revolution Coverage by Al-Jazeera and CNN," Spring, 2012.

Participated in a collaborative global studies project (2008-2010) with 16 faculty, primarily from SJSU; developed a series of web-based lectures on global mass communications for the Defense Language Institute (DLI) in Monterey Bay. In 2011, I taught the course in the Global Studies online program to students around the world. My part of the grant was for $10,000.

Received Support Student Success awards of .2 release time from the Office of the Provost for Fall, 2012; Fall, 2011; Spring 2009; Spring 2008; and Spring 2007. The 2012 award was for mentoring students on what they need to do to get into graduate school, the 2011 and 2009 awards were for mentoring minority and disadvantaged students on how to conduct research, the 2008 award was for helping graduate students write grant proposals, and the 2007 award was for setting up a Tuesday Night mentoring club for graduate students working on theses or projects. credit.

Professional Development San Jose State University Lottery Grants received annually from 1994-2007. The grants ranged from $1,500-$2,500.

Principal investigator, $75,000 Ford Foundation grant and $25,000 Gerbode Foundation grant for Grade the News, 2005-2006. Administered the grants, which provided continuation funding for Grade the News, an online journalism review that evaluated the quality of Bay Area newspaper and television news. Grade the News, founded by John McManus, relocated to the School from Stanford University in 2005. McManus, who served as director, and Michael Stoll ran the program.

Learning Productivity Program Implementation Grant of $22,376 in research funds and release time to conduct a study of students taking distance education courses at San Jose State University as well as of the faculty teaching the courses, 2000-2001.

Knight-Ridder Champions and Alquist grants provided $20,601 in research funds and release time to conduct a pilot study of web-based distance learning at San Jose State University, 1999-2000.

Obtained a Fulbright grant to bring Prof. Zhou Lifang of Beijing, China to the School as a Visiting Fulbright Scholar, Spring Semester, 1995, $15,000.

Reviewing and Journal Editor

Book and Refereed Journal/Convention Paper Reviewing: Convention paper reviewing, Communication Theory and Methodology Division, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication, 2006. Mass communication theory texts for Wadsworth, 2007 and 2001. Mass media law text for McGraw-Hill, 1999. Also reviewed manuscripts for Journalism and Mass Communications Monographs, 2001, and Communication Research, 1997. Member, Editorial Board, Newspaper Research Journal, 1983-1984.

Mass Comm Review. Editor of the refereed journal from 1987-1991 and co-editor, 1992-1997. Guest Editor, 1985; Associate Editor, 1984-1987; Reviewer on Editorial Board, 1982-1987.

External reviewer for large grant proposals (more than $35,000) on mass and mass-mediated communications submitted to the Research Grants Council of Hong Kong, which is responsible for assessing and making research grants to all institutions of higher education in Hong Kong, 1996-1999. The Council distributes about U.S. $42 million annually in research grants.

Survey Research (All large-sample surveys)

Designed media use study and wrote questionnaire for district-wide survey of high school seniors in the Fremont-Union School District, 2006. Directed survey of SJSU students for School (2001). Conducted distance education student/faculty surveys (1999-2001). Co-director of five surveys on media and politics: presidential election (2000), presidential primary (2000), post-impeachment (1999), Clinton-Lewinsky controversy (1998) and presidential election (1996). Co-director of survey on Internet and new media use (1995). Principal investigator for a national survey on media use, cultural values, and acculturation among Chinese and Chinese Americans (1994). Principal investigator for survey in Hong Kong on media use, Confucian values and Westernization (1990). Member of East-West Center-sponsored U.S. research team that collected data on traditional values in the United States for cross-cultural comparisons with data collected in China and Korea (1989). Conducted surveys for the San Jose Mercury News on California lifestyles, Proposition 13 (two pre-election and one post-election surveys) and the 1980 Carter-Reagan debate. Conducted surveys for the City of Cupertino on Channel 30's viewership and open space needs and support for a bond issue for the City of Cupertino.

Surveys were also conducted as class projects for the following publications: energy conservation, Mercury News; Peninsula Times Tribune study, feed/back; cameras in the courtroom, California Lawyer; and Stanford student media use survey, Stanford Daily.

AWARDS

Salzburg Fellow, 2010-2011. Participation in a "Globalizing the University" conference in Salzburg, Austria, July 9-16, 2010. As part of my project, I helped work on a small Global Century grant for globalizing general education courses at SJSU that was funded by the American Association of Colleges and Universities.

Dean's Distinguished Service Award, College of Applied Sciences and Arts, 2009.

Global Studies Fellow, San Jose State University, 2003-2004. Worked with 11 other fellows to initiate a short-term study abroad program for the University. Developed a study abroad course for journalism and advertising students.

Learning Productivity Program award, San Jose State University (2000-2001).

Knight-Ridder Champions Fellow (Spring 2000), and Alquist Fellow and member of the Alquist Center for Innovative Learning Faculty-in-Residence Program at San Jose State University, 1999-2000.

Distinguished Faculty Mentor Awards (1999 & 1998) from the Graduate Studies and Research Committee for serving as the primary advisor to two M.S. students who were selected as Outstanding Student Researchers to represent SJSU at the CSU statewide competitions.

Selected by SJSU as a Teacher-Scholar for 1996-1997 and participated in the Institute for Teaching and Learning (ITL) activities designed to improve teaching and learning at SJSU.

Received the Edward J. Trayes Professor of the Year Award from the Mass Communication and Society Division, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication (AEJMC) for "scholarly activities and leadership in the Division and AEJMC," August 12, 1996. (Previously, the award had been given to only three other professors since it was established in 1987.)

Selected for faculty membership in Phi Kappa Phi, national honor society, for outstanding achievement and leadership at San Jose State, 1994.

Fulbright Scholar, International Journalism Program, China School of Journalism in Beijing, China, 1990-1991 and 1991-1992.

Fulbright Scholar, Department of Public and Social Administration, City University of Hong Kong, January-August, 1990.

Named as Honorary Member, Golden Key National Honor Society, San Jose State University Chapter, November, 1988.

Received Distinguished Service Award, Washington and Lee University, The Society of Professional Journalists, 1987.

SERVICE TO SAN JOSE STATE UNIVERSITY

School: Current Committees: Curriculum (chair, 2000-2009 and 1994-1997); Graduate with heavy thesis advising load; Personnel (served on 14 search committees since 2000 as well as numerous RTP committees); and Anderson Endowment Fund. Pre-law advisor for the School, 2001-. Served as Graduate Coordinator and Graduate Admissions chair (1994-1998; 1985-1987). Organized and chaired an Ad Hoc Journalism Curriculum revision committee—a semester-long series of Friday retreats on convergence of four separate journalism programs. Have served on Hearst, Computer; Professional Leave, Scholarship; and Spartan Daily Advisory Board. Former advisor, Kappa Tau Alpha, journalism honorary.

Special Projects: Played major role in School Accreditation Self-Studies for 2008, 2001, and 1995. Worked for several years to update curriculum and wrote Curriculum section for 2008 Report. Conducted Student Survey for School for the 2001 Accreditation Report. Coordinated self-study of the M.S. curriculum, organized focus groups, and wrote ACEJMC Accreditation Report for the M.S. Program (Fall, 1995). Wrote SJSU Priorities Report for the M.S. Program (Spring, 1996). Served as Fulbright liaison for Prof. Zhou Lifang while he was at the School in Spring, 1995, as a Visiting Fulbright Scholar and helped to develop and co-teach an experimental course with him on “Mass Media and Society in China.” Also served as liaison for two other visiting scholars from China in 2002-02 and 2003-04.

College: Curriculum Committee, 2000-2009 and 1994-1997; RTP Committee, 2001. Professional Leaves Committee, (chair, 1999). Served on the Division of Technology RTP Committee, 1994-1995; Search Committee for the Dean of the College, 1993-1994, and the Research Committee, 1984-1986 (co-chair, 1985-1986).

University: University Retention and Tenure Committee, 2004-2008 (chair, 2007, 2008). Board of General Studies, Fall 2008 and 1994-1997. Graduate Studies and Research Committee, including the Graduate Writing Requirements and Organized Research Units subcommittees, 2000-2006. University China Committee, 2004-2006. Helped to establish exchange programs with the China Daily and Renmin (People’s) University, both in Beijing, and the City University of Hong Kong. MUSE Peer Review Group (coordinator, 2002). Peer Review Range Elevation Committee (chair, 2001). Served as consultant to the College of Engineering for accreditation surveys, 1997-1998. Participated in ITL Retreat, 1997. SJSU Delegate to the CSU Academic (Cornerstones) Conference in Monterey, 1997. University Research Committee, 1985-1988 (chair, 1986-1988); and the Search Committee for the Foundation's Head of Grants Development (1987).

SERVICE TO JOURNALISM PROFESSION AND TO THE ACADEMIC FIELD

Presenter at day-long workshop for high school and community college faculty on “Teaching Peace, Teaching Non-Violence: Strategies for Educating our Students about the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict,” April 19, 2013. Discussed media coverage of the conflict.

Developed and taught two modules for visiting professors from Afghanistan in fall semester, 2012 and in spring semester, 2013—six lectures on entertainment around the world and six lectures on news and information in traditional and social media around the world.

Participated in a SJSU educational trip to Cuba, Jan. 7-18, 2013. While in Cuba, I visited journalists’ organizations and had the opportunity to interview an editor who traveled with both Castro brothers when they made trips within Cuba

Served as an ambassador to an Afghan faculty member in 2011-2012, serving as a contact before his arrival and as his academic host when he was here.

Organized and hosted the 22-member China Chongqing Culture Industry Management Delegation to the School for a series of lectures on media and culture in the United States. Gave four lectures to the delegation, Oct. 17-22, 2012.

Speaker on "Role of Al-Jazeera and Twitter in the Toppling of Mubarak in Egypt," Lions Club, Palo Alto, CA, Nov. 8, 2011.

Discussant, research paper session on "What's New in Our News? Understanding Today's News Consumption and Its Features," Communication Technology Division, Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication Annual Convention, Denver, CO, August 7, 2010.

Presenter, "Knowledge Gained, Knowledge Lost: Media Campaigns in Thailand" at pre-convention workshop on "Feminization of HIV/AIDS and Media: Responses and Case Studies," International Division and the Commission on the Status of Women, Association for Education in Journalism, Denver, CO, August 5, 2010.

Presenter, "Take This Presentation and Get It Published," Mass Communications Division, Western Social Science Association Annual Conference, Reno, NV, April 17, 2010.

Discussant, research paper session on "Media in the World," Mass Communications Division, Western Social Science Association Annual Conference, Reno, NV, April 16, 2010.

Conducted workshops in Fall 2006-2010 at the annual conference of the Northern California Division of the Journalism Association of Community Colleges for faculty and students, San Jose State University. In 2010, 2009, and 2008, I conducted a workshop on libel law and, in 2007 and 2006, I conducted workshops on news judgment, "Step into the Editors' Shoes at The New York Times: What Stories Make Page 1.

Presenter, teaching workshop for faculty on "Middle East in the Classroom," Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication Annual Convention, Chicago, August 5, 2008.

Co-presenter at workshop for Municipal Managers Association of Northern California. Presentation on "Designing Effective Questionnaires for Public Policy Research," Cupertino City Hall, May 14, 2008.

Instructor for the Dow Jones West Coast Center for Editing Excellence (1998-2008). The annual two-week intensive editing workshop was for students selected in a national competition to work as Dow Jones interns on metropolitan newspapers. Each December, I joined instructors from six other universities at a two-day meeting held at Dow Jones headquarters in Princeton, NJ to select the interns.

Member, steering committee of the Grade the News Advisory Board, 2003-2006.

Organized and served as a co-presenter, along with John McManus of Grade the News, for a campus workshop for the SJSU Campus Reading Program on "Nickel and Dimed: Legal and Ethical Issues in Undercover Reporting," Nov. 17, 2005.

Presenter, panel on "News and Views: Should Broadcast Journalists Participate in Political Activity" at the NORCAL RTNDA annual meeting, Monterey, Oct. 23, 2004.

Served on panel on "U.S./China Media Relations—Misrepresentation, Biases, and Common Ground" at the Forum for American/Chinese Exchange at Stanford (FACES), and participated in FACES conference, Stanford University, April 13, 2004.

Keynote address on "American Media" to 65 Chinese University professors of English at their annual conference/retreat on teaching English, Tunxi, China, Aug. 14, 2003. Also, accompanied SJSU AVP Mark Novak on exchange program meetings with the China Daily, Renmin University, and the Beijing Institute of Technology in Beijing. Talked to the staff at the Shanghai Star in Shanghai about American journalism.

Served as External Examiner for the BA (Honors) Program in English for Professional Communication at the City University of Hong Kong, 1999-2000.

Organized a day-long workshop on distance education at SJSU for a 12-member delegation from universities in China, September, 2000.

Conducted a day-long workshop for reporters and editors of China International Business, a monthly magazine published by the Ministry of Foreign Trade and Economic Cooperation, Beijing, China, April 19, 1999. (The Ministry was responsible for negotiating China's membership in the World Trade Organization with the United States and other nations.)

Panel participant/presenter at meeting on the future of on-line newspapers that was sponsored by the China Youth Daily, Beijing, China, April 18, 1999.

Participant/presenter in roundtable discussion on the U.S. press and Chinese-language journalism in the United States for the Parvin Fellows, Chinese journalists who spent a year studying at the University of Hawaii, Freedom Forum Pacific Coast Center, Oakland, California, May 7, 1994 and May 6, 1995.

Conducted sessions on libel and privacy law for the Dow Jones West Coast Center for Editing Excellence program (1987-1989 and 1994-1996) and the Dow Jones/San Jose Mercury News Minority Journalism Program (1994), at San Jose State.

Served a three-year term on the Fulbright Scholar Area Committee on China, Taiwan, Hong Kong, and Mongolia, Council for the International Exchange of Scholars, Washington, D.C., 1992-1994. (Reviewed about 120 application files annually and selected Fulbright Scholars.)

Served on the Fulbright Scholar Distinguished Lecturer Nomination for Southeast Asia Committee, 1994. (Reviewed about 30 application files of finalists; selections were made in conference calls.)

Served on a three-member team that conducted a 10-day series of workshops for the Freedom Forum on environmental reporting for reporters, editors, and university students in Hong Kong and in Jakarta, Indonesia, May, 1994.

Conducted a day-long workshop on "Pornography in the United States" for the Chinese National Health Education Institute, Beijing, August 21, 1992.

Conducted a week-long series of seminars and workshops sponsored by the Mongolian Journalists Association and the Agency for International Development on the philosophical basis and operation of the free press in the United States and how elections and politics are covered in the United States, Ulan Bator, Mongolia, May, 1992.

Conducted a week-long series of lectures on mass media in the United States and on news writing at Xiamen University, Xiamen, China, in April, 1991 and in May, 1992.

Served as a guest lecturer and resource person for faculty and students on topics relating to mass media and society in the United States, journalism and mass communication programs in the United States, and news writing for periods ranging from two to four days at the following universities in China: Guangzhou Foreign Studies University in Guangzhou, April, 1991; Heilongjiang University in Harbin, April, 1992; Nanjing University in Nanjing, April, 1992; Shanghai International Studies University in Shanghai, April, 1991 and April, 1992; and Sichuan University in Chengdu, April, 1991.

Conducted a week-long series of lectures on topics related to mass communication theory and research in the United States and propaganda and mass media in China at Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok, Thailand, January, 1992.

Served a three-year term on the Standing Committee on Professional Freedom and Responsibility (PF&R), Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication (AEJMC), 1987-1990. (Elected to Committee by vote of AEJMC membership.)

Served as a Public Member on the Public Affairs Committee, The State Bar of California, 1988-1989.

Participant in week-long "Workshop on Cultural Change in the United States, China, and Korea," at the East-West Center in Honolulu, July, 1989.

Served as expert witness in change of venue cases for the Santa Cruz County District Attorney's Office, 1984, and the Monterey County District Attorney's Office, 1987. Also served as expert in libel cases, 1984-1985 and 1987-1989.

Served as judge for the International Journalism Awards, World Affairs Council of Northern California, 1987 and 1988.

Elected to three-year term as officer of the Mass Communication and Society Division (MC&S) of the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication (AEJMC). Served as secretary-newsletter editor in 1985-1986 and vice head-program chair in 1986-1987. Selection as editor of Mass Comm Review precluded service as division head in 1987-1988. Served on division's research committee, heading convention research paper competitions, 1983-1985. Also, Conference Organizer for the MC&S Spring Conference in San Francisco, March 14-15, 1985 on "Privacy and the Press: Legal and Ethical Dilemmas."

Member, Executive Steering Committee, Western Communications Educators, 1984-1987; Also, Conference Organizer for WCE's 1985 conference at SJSU.

U. S. delegate, "Consultative Meeting on Advanced Training of Newspaper and News-Agency Journalists from Third World Countries," sponsored by Radio Nederland, The Netherlands, May 31-June 5, 1981. (The participants designed the curriculum for training programs for Third World journalists conducted in 1982 and 1983 in Asia, Africa, and Latin America.)

External Examiner, Department of Communication, University of West Indies, 1980-1987.

Member, Stanford Daily Board of Directors, 1977-1981.